CHECK OUT OUR 2018 FALL CLASSES:

Art and Soul — Join us as we create art projects and learn about meditation. Art Projects will include designing a clock, string art, making a wind chime and more! These art projects will coincide with a meditation practice. We'll learn about the benefits of meditation (reduces stress, anxiety and depression, improves grades, increases attention and concentration...) and we will practice different types to find one you enjoy!

Michele Bledsoe, Instructor

Raspberry Pi /Intro to Robotics – Learn computer programming with a tiny computer called Raspberry Pi. Program games, puzzles, and other tools using Python & Scratch computer languages. Learn to use the Linux operating system & a variety of open source software sets. New computer labs every week! Have fun while learning computer science and engineering.

Sal Rivas, Instructor

Beginner Guitar – Learn basic guitar chords. Be prepared to have fun! Bring your own guitar. Several are available to borrow.

Alan Rasmussen, Instructor

Healthy Cooking – Learn to prepare snacks and simple meals that are healthy & easy to make. Sample different types of cooking, as well as different ways to cook.

Melissa Zehe, Instructor

Inspired Charms: Book Edition – Bring popular book characters to life through wearable art. We will be exploring different literary genres that will help us create necklaces, bracelets, headbands, and more. Make sure to bring your favorite book(s) to share on the first day as we will use it to create a personal, polymer-clay project. This class is suitable for the beginner as well as experienced jewelry-makers.

Amy Deal, Instructor

Class sizes are limited – so register soon! (Classes run from 3:15 to 5:00 every Thursday. Students may come directly from school and meet in the FTB Cafeteria where an on-site coordinator will stay with students, and administer snacks until class time.) After School Arts registration forms will be available at Culpeper middle school, high schools, and Culpeper Public Library

Registration Form is On-Line At: www.healthyculpeper.com
